

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

August 1, 1913

Foodstuffs—Protection of. (Ord. Apr. 16, 1912.)

SECTION 1. Every person in charge of any store, dairy, café, lunch room, hotel, soda fountain, or other place in the city of Norfolk where any food, beverage, confectionery, or other article intended for human consumption is manufactured, prepared, stored, or offered for sale, sold, or otherwise dispensed, shall cause such place to be screened, inclosed, or otherwise protected, when and in such manner as may from time to time be directed or designated by the health commissioner.

SEC. 2. No meat, dressed poultry, fish, confectionery, bread, pastry, cooked food of any kind, berries, vegetables, fruit, or other article intended for human consumption without cooking or peeling, shall be kept or exposed for sale in or on any street or other public place, or outside of any shop or store, or in any open window or doorway, without compliance with such rules and regulations as may from time to time be prescribed or designated by the health commissioner.

SEC. 3. No article intended for human consumption shall be stored, exposed, or displayed on the surface of any street, or floor of any market house, or placed in any doorway, or in front of any place of business, or in any other place accessible to dogs or other animals, but shall be raised at least 24 inches above the street, sidewalk, platform, or landing.

SEC. 4. No meat, dressed poultry, fish, bread, pastry, confectionery, or other provisions intended for human consumption shall be transported through the streets of the city without being covered or screened in such manner as may be prescribed by the health commissioner.

SEC. 5. Any person violating any provision of this ordinance, or failing or refusing to comply with any of the rules, regulations, or instructions adopted or issued by the health commissioner hereunder shall be fined not more than $100.

SEC. 6. This ordinance shall be in force from its passage and publication according to law.

Milk and Milk Products. (Ord. Apr. 16, 1912.)

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful to sell, exchange, or give away, or offer to sell, exchange, or give away, in the city of Norfolk, any milk or cream, or any article of food composed in whole or in part of milk or cream, except butter and cheese, unless such milk or cream was produced at a dairy holding a valid permit from the health department of said city, or unless there shall have been produced before the health commissioner of said city satisfactory evidence that such milk or cream, as the case may be, has been subjected to the process commonly known as pasteurizing, and that such treatment was conducted in accordance with the requirements prescribed therefor by such commissioner, together with such other evidence as in the judgment of said commissioner may be necessary in order to determine whether or not such milk or cream is wholesome and fit for human consumption.

SEC. 2. Every person, firm, or corporation convicted of violating any provision of this ordinance shall be fined not exceeding $500 for each offense.

SEC. 3. This ordinance shall go into effect 10 days after it has been published according to law; and all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Physicians, Surgeons, and Midwives—Registration of. (Ord. July 16, 1912.)

1. That every physician, surgeon, and midwife, practicing medicine or doing business in the city of Norfolk or within its police jurisdiction, shall register his or her name at the office of the health department of said city within one month after commencing to practice or do such business, giving full name, residence and place of business, and in case of removal, to report the same within 10 days; provided that no person shall engage in the practice or business of midwifery without first obtaining a permit therefor from the health commissioner, who is hereby authorized to refuse such permit in any case where in his judgment it is not advisable to grant the same.

2. Any violation of this ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not more than $20.
3. This ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage and publication according to law; and all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Flies—Prevention of Breeding of. (Ord. July 16, 1912.)

1. That no person, firm, or corporation shall suffer, permit or have upon any premises owned or leased by them, any animal manure, privy, vault, cesspool, pit, or like place, garbage, trash, litter, rags, or other thing in which flies may breed or multiply, unless the same are securely protected therefrom.

2. Any violation of this ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not more than $50.
3. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed; and this ordinance shall be in effect after its passage and publication according to law.

Laundries—Registration of. (Ord. July 16, 1912.)

1. That every person, firm, or corporation doing laundry work in the city of Norfolk at any place other than at the home of the person for whom such work is done shall register at the office of the health department, giving full name, residence, and place of business; and in case of removal, shall report the same to the health department within 10 days.

2. All such persons, except licensed laundries, shall report to the health commissioner the names and residences of all their customers.
3. Any violation of this ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not more than $50.

NORTH ADAMS, MASS.

Nuisances—Certain Conditions Declared to be. (Reg. Bd. of H.,¹ May 28, 1912.)

RULE 1. Whatever is dangerous to human life or health; whatever building or part or cellar thereof is overcrowded or not provided with adequate means of ingress and egress, or is not sufficiently supported, ventilated, sewered, drained, lighted, or cleaned; and whatever renders soil, air, water, ice, or food impure or unwholesome, is declared to be a nuisance and to be illegal; and every person, or firm, or corporation having aided in creating or contributing to the same, or that may support, continue, or retain any of them, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this regulation and liable to the penalties provided by the Revised Laws of the Commonwealth for violation of such regulations as the board of health judges necessary to make for the preservation of the public health and safety,¹ and shall also be liable for the expense of the abatement or remedy required.

Privies and Cesspools—House Drainage. (Reg. Bd. of H., May 28, 1912.)

RULE 2. Every building in said city shall, when deemed necessary by the board of health, be furnished with a sufficient drain, underground, into a common sewer or reservoir; and also with suitable water-closets or with a privy, the vault of which shall be so constructed that the inside of the same shall be at least 3 feet from the line of every adjoining lot, unless the owner of such lot shall consent or agree otherwise, and also 3 feet from every street, lane, passageway, or public place; and every such vault or privy shall be built of brick or stone laid in cement and in such manner that its contents may be readily removed.

¹ "Whoever violates any such regulations shall forfeit not more than $100."—Rev. Laws, chap. 75, sec. 65.